Abstract

The Bible as the Revelation of God intends to present through the medium of language who God is, what he has done and what he will do. The Bible set itself within the limits of language, even as other books do. Modern books, i.e., books of the past few centuries, employ charts, pictures and symbols to assist the printed word. The Bible, however, restricts itself to words, phrases, and expressions current during the time of its authors. What we know about the past and God's relationship to the past is to be found within the confines of the language which people used the days the Bible was written.
Then, after repentance and baptism, God’s Spirit is given to a person through the laying on of hands by a duly ordained servant of God (Acts 8:14-18). Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John: 15 Who, when they. Repentance focuses our vision on the love and mercy of God and the forgiveness of sin made possible by the sacrifice of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
Repentance is necessary for putting off the "old man," our former character, and becoming a part of the family of God (Ephesians 4:20-24 Ephesians 4:20-24 20 But you have not so learned Christ; 21 If so be that you have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: 22 That you put off. The Sovereignty of God in Operation "For of Him, and through Him, and to Him, are all things: to whom be the glory for ever. Amen" (Romans 11:36). Has God foreordained everything that comes to pass? Has He decreed that what is, was to have been? In the final analysis this is only another way of asking, Is God now governing the world and everyone and everything in it? If God is governing the world then is He governing it according to a definite purpose, or aimlessly and at random? If He is governing it according to some purpose, then … Arthur W.
